POLICY ON RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS AND GUIDELINES

Introduction & Purpose

The Board of Directors of Prataap Snacks Limited (“the Company”), on September 23, 2016 has adopted this policy to regulate transactions of the Company by Related Parties in compliance with various applicable laws, including under the Companies Act, 2013 (the “Act”) and the provisions of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter called as LODR), prescribed for related party transactions.

Definition

- a) Arm’s Length Basis: Related Party Transaction will be treated to be on ‘Arm’s Length Basis’ if the key terms, taken as a whole, are comparable with those of similar transactions if they would have been undertaken with non-related parties.
- b) “Associate” means a Company as defined under section 2(6) of the Companies Act, 2013 and as defined by Accounting Standard (AS) 23, “Accounting for Investments in Associates in Consolidated Financial Statements” and by Accounting Standard (AS) 18, “Related party disclosures”.
- c) “Audit Committee or Committee” means the Committee of the Board formed under section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“Act”) and SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“LODR”).
- d) “Board” means Board of Directors of the Company.
- e) “Control” means control as defined in Section 2 (27) of the Act and shall have the same meaning as defined in SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 2011.
- f) “Key Managerial Personnel” shall mean the officers of the Company as defined in Section 2(51) of the Act.
- g) “Policy” means Related Party Transaction Policy.
- h) “Related Party”: A Related Party shall have the same meaning as defined under the Act and LODR.

- i) “Related Party Transaction” (“RPT”): A Related Party Transaction is a transfer of resources, services or obligations between a company and a Related Party, regardless of whether a price is charged. A transaction with a related party shall be construed to include single transaction or a group of transactions in a contract.
- j) “Materiality”: The materiality of any RPT will be ascertained as per the thresholds prescribed under the LODR.
- a) “Ordinary Course of Business”: RPT will be considered in ordinary course if they are entered in the normal course of the business pursuant to the objects of the Company as per the charter documents of the Company.

Policy

- a) The RPTs should be in conformity with the prevailing rules and regulations prescribed by law.
- b) All RPTs shall be placed before the Audit Committee for prior approval of the Audit Committee, as required under the provisions of the Act and the LODR.
- c) The Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for RPTs which are repetitive in nature, provided that such approval shall remain valid for a period not exceeding one year, during which period the commercial terms of approved RPTs may change, provided that arm’s length criterion shall be ensured at the time of each such change. Further, where the need for RPTs cannot be foreseen and requisite details are not available, the Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for such transactions provided that the value of each such transaction shall not exceed Rs. 1 crore.
- d) Any RPT which is not in the Ordinary Course of Business of the Company or not at Arm’s Length Basis shall be effected only with prior approval of the Board of Directors of the Company, on recommendation of Audit Committee.
- e) All RPT specified in the Act which are not Ordinary Course of Business of the Company or not at Arm’s Length Basis; and exceed the thresholds laid down in Companies (Meeting of Board and its Power) Rules, 2014 shall be placed before the shareholders for its approval. Notwithstanding, the RPTs which cross the Materiality thresholds as defined herein shall be entered by the Company only with prior approval of shareholders of the Company, as per applicable provisions of the LODR, as may be amended from time to time.

- f) Subject to the applicable laws, the Audit Committee shall have the power to ratify, revise or terminate the RPTs, which are not in accordance with this Policy.
- g) Exclusions: The following shall not be deemed as a RPT:
 - (i) Any transaction that involves the providing of compensation to a director by way of salary, fee, commission, perquisites, rent free accommodation or otherwise, in connection with his or her duties to the Company;
 - (ii) Contributions made by the Company to a charitable organization, trust, foundation or university at which a related party is a trustee, director or employee other than key managerial personnel (or comparable position), provided that each such contribution, made in a particular financial year, does not exceed two per-cent (2%) of the Company's average net profit for the preceding three financial years;
 - (iii) Any transaction in which the related party's interest arises solely from ownership of securities issued by the Company and all holders of such securities receive the same benefits pro rata as the related party.

Administrative Measures

The Company's management shall institute appropriate administrative measures to ensure that all RPTs entered into by the Company are in compliance with applicable laws and this Policy. All persons dealing with the related party (ies) shall, irrespective of their level, be responsible for compliance with this Policy. The detailed processes relating to implementation of this Policy, as may be approved by the Audit Committee from time to time, shall be followed by all concerned. The Internal Auditors of the Company shall review the RPTs entered into by the Company on a periodic basis and report their observations to the Audit Committee. The Company Secretary shall be responsible to maintain/update the list of related parties (as required by applicable laws) and provide the same to all concerned. It is the duty of all employees of the Company to ensure that they do not deal with related parties under any kind of influence or coercion. The cases involving any unwarranted pressure should be promptly reported as per mechanism provided under the Whistle Blower Policy of the Company.

Interpretation

In any circumstance where the provisions of this Policy differ from any existing or newly enacted law, rule, regulation or standard governing the Company, the relevant law, rule, regulation or standard will take precedence over this Policy until such time as this Policy is changed to conform to the said law, rule, regulation or standard. In case of any clarification required with respect to this Policy, kindly contact the Company Secretary of the Company.
