

WAR OF WORDS | BJP says the deal strongly safeguards interests of farmers, dairy sector; Congress cites 'surreptitious' clauses, insists farmers 'deceived'

INDIA-US TRADE DEAL: BJP DEFENDS, CONG ATTACKS

Gaurav Vivek Bhatnagar
NEW DELHI

The Bharatiya Janata Party on Saturday countered the charge of the Opposition that the interests of Indian farmers and agriculture sector have been compromised due to the trade deal with the United States by insisting that the interests of farmers have been "firmly protected" and those of the dairy sector have also been "strongly safeguarded".

Addressing a press conference at the party headquarters, BJP MP and national spokesperson Sudhanshu Trivedi said India's entering into a deal with the United Arab Emirates (UAE) and signing Free Trade Agreements with Australia, Great Britain, Northern European countries (Switzerland-Norway) and thereafter with the European Union and the United States demonstrates that "all the major developed

CONGRESS ACCUSES PM OF 'SURRENDER' IN TRADE DEAL

The Congress on Saturday accused Prime Minister Narendra Modi of "surrender" in the India-US trade deal saying "The White House has noted that it would still be monitoring whether India is importing oil from Russia or not."

Raising the issue, Congress general secretary Jairam Ramesh said, "If the US decides India has imported Russian oil directly or indirectly the extra 25% tariff penalty is back. This is truly extraordinary." Wondering how the Modi government accepted such a clause, the Congress leader, while citing a slogan coined by party leader Rahul Gandhi in June last year said, "Naam Narendra Kaam Surrender".

Ramesh also shared in a post on "X" the "monitoring and recommendations" details under Section 4 shared by The White House which spelt out how the US would monitor India's oil purchases. The document said, "The Secretary of Commerce, in coordination with the Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury, and any other senior official the Secretary of Commerce deems appropriate, shall monitor whether India resumes directly or indirectly importing Russian Federation oil, as defined in section 7 of Executive Order 14329."

It added that, "If the Secretary of Commerce finds that India has resumed directly or indirectly importing Russian Federation oil, the Secretary of State, in consultation with ... shall recommend whether and to what extent I should take additional action as to India" and whether the "additional ad valorem rate of duty of 25 percent on imports of articles of India" should be reimposed on India.

Congress's head of the media cell Pawan Kherra also termed the deal a "betrayal of everything India has stood for over the last 75 years" saying it was "not a deal in India's interest."

economic powers of the world are eager to do business with India."

Trivedi added that the Narendra Modi government has "moved towards a new direction while skillfully protecting the interests of its workers, its farmers, and its dairy entrepreneurs." He added that the details of the India-US trade agreement leave "no room for doubts that this agreement safeguards the interests of Indian farmers."

Elaborating on the subject, he said, the protection extends to "items such as wheat, rice, sugar, pulses, millets, jowar, bajra, and others, as well as worn-out clothing and domestic gold covering an extensive list."

Earlier, Congress general secretary Randeep Surjewala had charged that farmers have been "deceived" by the deal and that it would adversely impact "the lives and livelihoods of 72 crore of India's farmers and farm labourers".

RANCHI

A special investigation team (SIT) has been constituted to trace 10 tribal children, who went missing from a hamlet in Jharkhand's Koderma district, a senior police officer said on Saturday.

A reward of Rs 1 lakh has also been announced by the Koderma Police for anyone providing information about the whereabouts of the children, SP Anudeep Singh told PTI.

The children, who belong to the Particularly Vulnerable Tribal Group (PVTG) and residents of Gadiyari Birhor Tola (hamlet) in Khariyodhi panchayat, have been missing since February 1, after they did not return home from Parsabad, police said.

DSP Rati Bhan Singh is leading the SIT.

Pictures of the children with their names, age and other details are being circulated in multiple locations, including various police stations, and CCTV footage from Parsabad and nearby areas are being analysed, as part of the investigation, the officer said.

Rathbhan Singh told PTI that all the 10 children are aged between 5 and 14 years.

Punjab: Day after AAP leader's killing, retd SI's wife shot dead

Rajesh Moudgil
CHANDIGARH

A day after the shocking killing of an AAP leader in Jalandhar, the 62-year-old wife of a retired Punjab Police sub-inspector was shot dead in Punjab's Hoshiarpur district early Saturday morning.

According to information, Rachna Devi (62), wife of Sham Lal, a retired sub-inspector of the Punjab Police, was gunned down by an unidentified assailant at her home in Garshankar village of Hoshiarpur district.

While the police said they have initiated an investigation into the matter, opposition parties attacked the ruling Aam Aadmi Party (AAP), alleging a total collapse of law and order in the state.

State Congress president Amarinder Singh Raju Warring said in a post on X: "Another brutal murder in broad daylight... What could a 62-year-old woman have possibly done to deserve this? Punjab Police has failed to curb the rise of gangsterism in Punjab. Meanwhile, the AAP government hides behind hoardings and advertisements, leaving Punjabis to fend for themselves."

Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) chief Sukbir Badal said in a post on X: "It's not even 24 hours since another Punjab has been gunned down—this time the wife of a former sub-inspector. Under Bhawant Mann's disastrous rule, Punjab has become a daily crime scene."

"Yesterday's brazen daylight murder outside a gurdwara in Jalandhar, followed by today's cold-blooded killing of a 62-year-old woman in Garshankar (Hoshiarpur), cements the fact that law and order has completely collapsed," he further said.

Himanta slams Cong leaders over 'offensive gestures' to women

PTI

Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma on Saturday alleged that senior Congress leaders Bhupen Kumar Borah and Debabrata Saikia made offensive gestures towards women during a recent party rally.

He said that the Congress should expel Borah, a former state party president, and Saikia, the leader of the opposition in the assembly, for "disrespecting women".

Dismissing the allegation, Saikia said the chief minister should concentrate on the many problems the state is facing.

Speaking to reporters on the sidelines of a government programme here, Sarma claimed that a hand gesture was made in Guwahati a couple of days ago from atop a bus being used by the Congress for its ongoing statewide rally.

Maintaining that it was a gesture towards all Assamese girls and women, he said, "If the party doesn't expel them, I don't think they will be able to go anywhere. It is about all women, not about any 'jati' (community)." Sarma said that he has directed that the video clip be sent to the women's commission so that cognisance is taken of it.

GHASTLY DETAILS OF GZB TRIPLE SUICIDE SEND SHOCKWAVES

PTI
GHAZIABAD (UP)

Investigation into the suicide of three minor sisters in Uttar Pradesh's Ghaziabad has revealed that they were depressed because their father had snatched their phones after observing that they were obsessed with the Korean cult, police said.

Due to this, the girls could not play online games and talk to their Korean friends, the police said, adding that their father later sold the phones.

On the night of the incident, they took their mother's phone, but could not access the Korean app on that device. The forensic team, which reached the spot and seized the mobile phone, could not find any access of the Korean app.

The fingerprints, including the handwritten suicide note and the messages, have been sent to the forensic science laboratory, the report of which is still awaited, DCP (Trans Hindon) Nimish Paul told PTI on Saturday.

In 2015, the father Chetan Kumar's live-in partner died under suspicious circumstances after falling from the roof of a flat at Rajendra Nagar Colony in the Sahibabad police station area. Later, the police dismissed the case, treating the death as a suicide.

Nishika (16), Prachi (14) and Pakhi (12) jumped to their deaths from the ninth floor of their residential tower in Bharat City Society under the Trans-Hindon police station jurisdiction earlier this week.

Interrogation has confirmed that currently, Kumar has three wives - Sujata (Nishika's mother), Heena (Prachi and Pakhi's mother) and Tina. All three wives are biological sisters.

SC agrees to examine HP govt's plea for withdrawal of cases against MPs, MLAs

PTI

The Supreme Court has agreed to hear a plea of the Himachal Pradesh government against a high court order not allowing the withdrawal of 45 cases lodged against MPs and MLAs, including those lodged during the tenure of the previous BJP government against Congress workers for holding rallies during the Covid pandemic.

A bench of Chief Justice Surya Kant and Justice Joydip Bagchi issued a notice on the plea challenging the April 26, 2024, order of the High Court of Himachal Pradesh not allowing withdrawal of criminal cases against sitting and former lawmakers of the state.

The high court partly allowed the plea of the Sukhvinder Singh Sukhul Congress government to withdraw only 15 cases recommended for withdrawal.

BJP's Ritu Tawde set to become Mumbai mayor

MUMBAI

BJP's Ritu Tawde is all set to become Mumbai's mayor and the party's first in four decades after Shiv Sena (UBT) decided against fielding a challenger, making the contest unopposed and ending the Thackeray family's 25-year dominance over the richest civic body.

On the final day of filing nominations, the Eknath Shinde-led Shiv Sena, a BJP ally in the ruling Mahayuti, named Sanjay Ghadi as its candidate for deputy mayor. The party announced that the deputy mayor's term would be split, allowing four or more corporators to serve during the tenure.

Tawde's elevation means the Uddhav Thackeray-led Sena will not be able to occupy the mayor's post after 25 years. The undivided Shiv Sena controlled the BMC from 1997 to 2022.

The Mumbai mayoral election is scheduled for February 11, which is the last day to withdraw the nominations.

Tawde (53) and Ghadi (57) filed their nominations at the municipal secretary's office in the presence of Minister Mangal Prabhat Lodha, BJP's Mumbai unit chief Amit Sahani, former Shiv Sena MP Rahul Shewale, and other leaders of Mahayuti.
